"TIS THE SEASON" .

It has been suggested that next year a sunken stadium be built with the Shuffleboard Court lowered by 4 feet and bleachers surrounding the court. We have a bid of $500,000 so that the B.P. can be put back on track for $4 million.

The Big Six on the board will back it. Kay will challenge it because it is against our by laws and Ken will abstain. All votes to be tallied on February 30th after the marathon race to the Hyatt, bring your own shoes.

Karen Paul was throwing away her artificial potted plants when she noticed that a plastic bag of cannabis and small pipe stuffed in the Styrofoam was also tossed. The plant was really potted.

The San Francisco Chronicle has an Employment Ad for Health & Safety Assistant. We need one of those for the Shuffleboard Tournament. All those interested please give your applications to Sally on February 30th.

Did you notice that the Schedule for the Tournament was for last year. Carol was not up to date, but the schedule was.

For those who are in the Shuffleboard Tournament and have not paid their one dollar entrance fee to Fran or Sally do so ASAP!. Otherwise your name will appear in the dead beat section of the Underground Newsletter !.

Keep smiling and be happy.
