“TIS THE SEASON” .

ANNOUNCEMENT: There will be no Valentines Parties, bring your own Valentine, on February 29th. If you are disappointed complain to the Tournament Directors—they can’t wait to hear your comments!.

The scalpers are in attendance today to see what price to charge for the Semis and Final Matches.

Don’t forget to give Flora her $23 for the Shuffleboard Breakfast. The $23 will not go to pay for the B.P.

Sherry did not get a birdie today. She said she really liked Birds!.

The 2nd match was delayed due to the rain. The grounds people failed to show up to put the tarp on the courts.

Tuesday is Valentines Day—For the love of spouse or whatever there will be no pre-organized Shuffleboard Matches.

After the Quarter Finals are finished there remains only the Semi Finals and the Mighty Finals Match. Don’t put your money on Paul’s Raiders or Ken’s 49ers.

The first scheduled game at 2 p.m. was won by Charlie Mayrs and Ellie Naden 100 to 75 over George McDowell and Betty O’Connell.

The 3 p.m. match was almost postponed due to the rain— However— It began at 3:05 p.m. With minuses and a bunch of zeroes.

The final score was 26 to 56 when the game was called due to rain. Arthur Broder and Jane McDowell were behind Scotty Smith and Mary Lou Turner. Completion at a later date will be announced.

The third match of the day was also called and a later date will also be announced.

Donations are being solicited to purchase a Norwegian lounge chair to go into Judge Lou’s unit. It is on sale at 25% off. It will relieve the Judge’s back. Hubba! Hubba!.

All reservations for the Awards Bruch must be received by Monday, February 20th.
