Shuffleboard Tournament Underground
Newsletter 2nd Edition
Thursday, February 2nd, 2006.

“TIS THE SEASON” .

The games have begun—Judge Lou was presented with his own Hi Chair. (Loulani has out-grown hers). Our insurance expert will be too busy being Sergeant of Arms to be able to file any insurance claim. Judge Lou, Do not fall out of your Hi Chair!.

Don't forget to pay Sally or Fran, the water aerobic lady, your one dollar entry fee. If you forget you will be charged double for your Free Dinner on the Beach, Bring Your Own Food on February 29th.

Maui, the Cat Lady's feline, complained that she did not get her copy of the 1st Edition of the Underground Newsletter. This will not happen again.

Paul, our great Manager, arrived at the Shuffleboard Courts yesterday to watch the first match, however he was a day early.

Please schedule for your matches ASAP at the shack. As soon as the “Play In Round” is completed the “First Round” can begin.

Only one match is scheduled for Friday, Joe Brakovec and Flora Goodridge versus Sally Thorpe and Ken “Fruitcake” Langendorf.

Please give your heart warming condolences to Charley Disheroon, he lost his wallet. MKV has been very understanding—they will charge him later.

There is no free lunch—except on February 29th, bring your own food.

Thank you Paul Schow for the newly painted Shuffleboard Court and the new pucks and new sticks. You're a stand up tall guy in our books.

The Naden's are back on property and already they are practicing with the pucks and the sticks.

All specimens, according to Dr. Bill Green, are to be sent to 274.

Thank the Turners, Mary Lou and Don for starting the Shuffleboard Tournaments years ago.

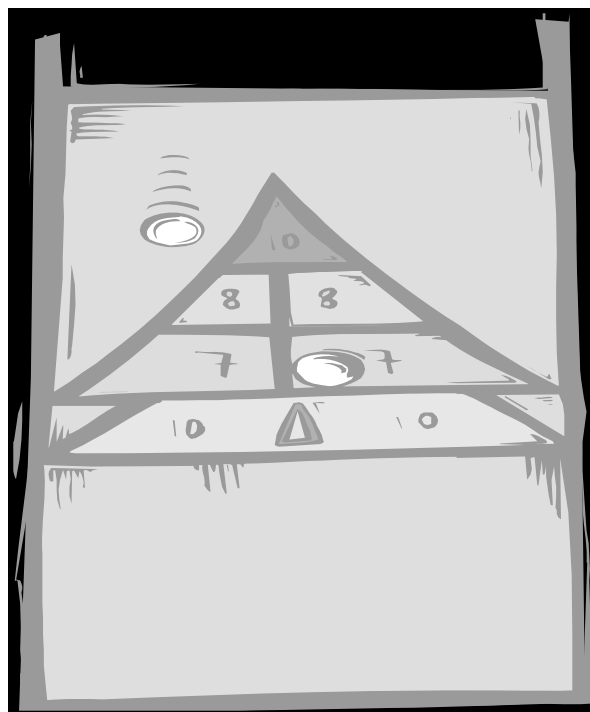

An exciting game was played by Barbie Langendorf and Dave Vistaunet but they were defeated by Dean Rockey and Jan Brakovec. After the game Sherry asked Dave “What the Hell Happened”!.

The second match between Don Turner and Terry Jones Vs Peter Lazenby and Francis Rockey was 13 to 33 with Peter and Francis leading when the Judge Arthur Broder citing a Rocky start and ending called due to rain.

Look for a reschedule.

That's all folks.
