“TIS THE SEASON” .

Well the Sea Hawks lost yesterday and the world didn't come to an end. Maybe it's because Tiger Woods won his second tournament of the year in overtime.

Did anyone notice that Parker, our Sergeant of Arms, kept one eye on your shoes at the Super Bowl Party in case the “Shoe Thief” (aka Judge Lou) was up to his old tricks.

The First Match was a runaway with Peter Lazenby and FRANCES (with an “e “ for a change) beating Don Turner and Terry Jones 110 to 35. Even the libations delivered by Bruce Kranak didn't help. This was an upset as Peter was injured earlier in the day as he blind sided Don. If Frances and Rocky continue this way guess who will be responsible for Dinner and Tournament next year.

In the following match Bruce Kranak accused Scotty of harassing Judge Arthur. It didn't matter the Bruce Kranak and Pat Lazenby team lost to Scotty Smith and Mary Lou Turner 110 to 89. Mary Lou played an outstanding game. Really thought we would all have to postpone our sunset cocktails it went on for so long.

Several celebrities were in the record crowd of 65 in the bleachers. They were Paul Schow and Joanie Mayo—as well as President of the Board, Jim Roemer.

Les Howatt and Carol Kranak played a great game to win over Tom Naden and Ruth Broder 104 to 36.

Judge Arthur gave the bleacher crowd the option of his not adjudicating his wife's match or that he would and Parker would have the final call on any close line calls. Judge Arthur said as a consolation prize he was taking Ruth out for dinner.

TUESDAY is the last day of the Play Ins.

Tuesday at 2 pm is Charlie Disheroon and Nina Howatt playing Don Powell and Lynn Carlson.

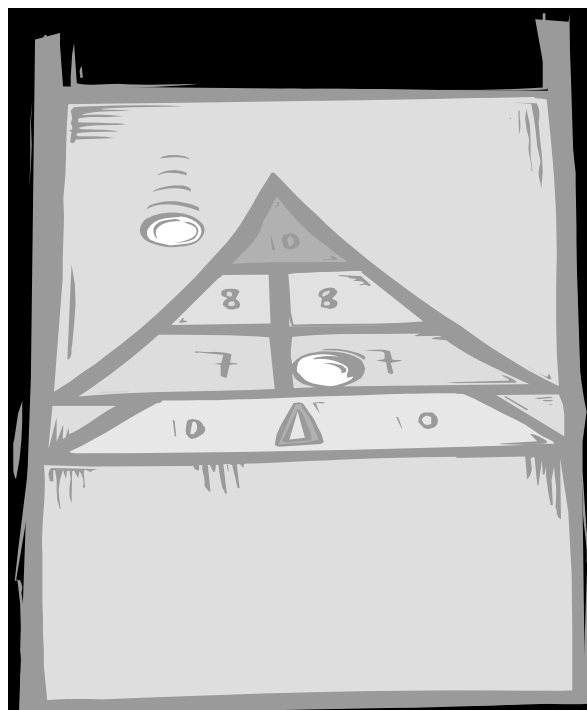

At 3 pm is George McDowell and Betty O'Connell versus Dick Thorpe and Kay Ghean.

Wednesday the new Regular Tournament Sign Up Sheet will be at the Shack. Please schedule your games ASAP. Thank you from Sally and Fran.

Hey guys, Get Your Free Haircut on the Beach, February 29th, Bring Your Own Barbara.

That's all folks.
