"TIS THE SEASON" .

Today, the game of the century was played teaming two almost centurions against each other and what a match!. The young Nina Howatt and Hy Siegel played Pinkie Stolz and the young Scotty Smith. On the last play of the match Scotty scored a minus 10 and Hy scored a whopping 25 to win the match 107 to 68. Hy even brought his own chair. Pinkie played well almost scoring 2 plus 10's.

The missing Judges chair was found and Betty O'Connell has offered her Lanai for storage during the balance of the games.

Gene and Terri Jones obtained at the swap meet an alternative Judges chair. Thank you!. Way to go!.

New equipment (the puck pushers) were issued today. Upon issuance of the new sticks a protest was filed by a participant of Thursdays match about having to use outdated equipment. However no rematch was called.

Les Howatt is getting younger as he celebrates his 77th today!. Happy Birthday Les!. Many more of the same!.

Nobody wanted to be sheriff today-Charlie Mayrs obliged for awhile and turned it over to Don Turner—(Don—you look cute in Pink!).

War of the Judges. One Judge accused the other Judge of not sitting in a chair because it didn't fit. (That's hitting below something!).

The Phantom was told that he misquoted The Sheriff Bill Green in the last Underground Newsletter. So here is the correction—Dang!. By the time I got back to my unit I forgot what the correction was, oh well—next time - Sorry Bill.

Thank you Paul Schow for the new puck sticks. They are slightly different than the ones used to hit those little white balls.

P.S. The scorekeeper (Jim) was informed of the two colors of the pucks used today. (Yellow & Black). He wasn't told, though, which was which.
