“TIS THE SEASON” .

GUIDELINES FOR THE MKV SHUFFLEBOARD
TOURNAMENT 2009.

There are many “Unwritten Rules” which may also be applied as needed from time to time.

These are the rules as were established in 2008. Any other changes will be unpublished.

These guidelines were formulated after careful consultations with Retired Judges (Judge Lew Weil and Judge Arthur Broder) and with agreement of Judge Parker and Judge Joe.

- 1) Pucks touching the lines do not count, all others, including overhangs do count.
- 2) Scores will be tallied after all pucks come to rest, regardless of their journey.
- 3) No specimens are to be collected or supplied unless requested by an official.
- 4) Performance enhancing liquids ingested during a match may require sharing. Be forewarned!
- 5) Judges shall make every effort not to drink alcoholic beverages excessively during a match.
- 6) Whoever wins the coin toss goes second AND gets to choose either color of puck OR lane.

Respectively Submitted.

Any one caught imbibing more Mai Tais and Pupus than anyone else tonight will be highly admired.

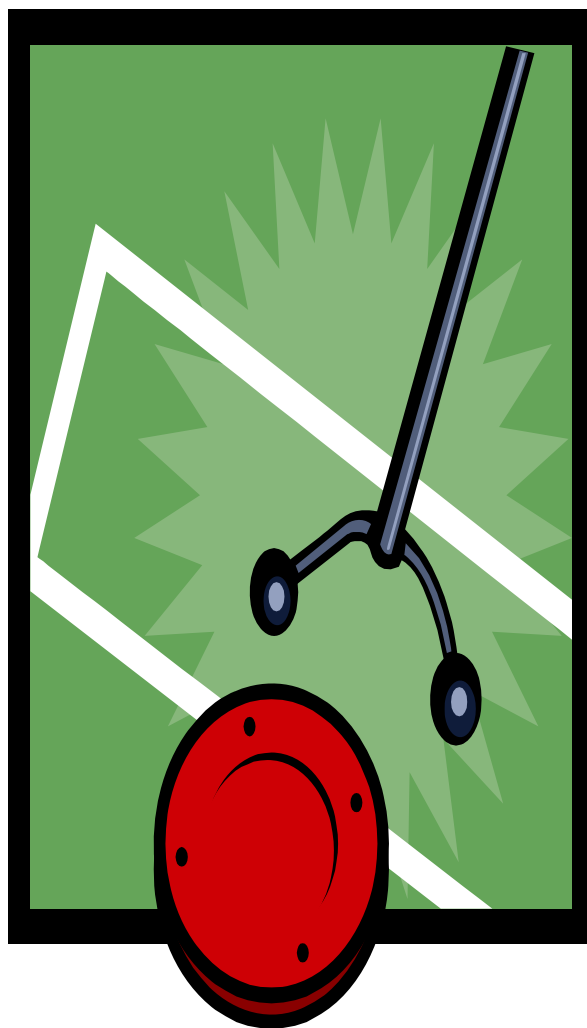

Any and all comments, complaints etc. regarding the above stated guidelines should be directed to Don Turner (preferable hour to contact Don is 3.22 a.m.) but don't disturb Mary Lou.
