"TIS THE SEASON".

The First Match of the 2010 season was held today-34 watchers showed up to watch Sid Stearns & Frances Rockey play Bill Carlson & Elaine Roemer. Sid played well in spite of his coach Don Turner.

However Sid and Frances were at a disadvantage when Elaine had a high score of shooting a 30. The final score was 44 to 113 with "easy going Bill" and "dynamic Elaine" winning.

Judge Joe Brakovec was rather quiet. It's rumored that Judge Joe will accept any and all alcoholic beverages. He says maybe he can be bribed? (Never can he be influenced).

The unofficial and official guidelines for the MKV Shuffleboard 2010 Tournament are:

- 1) Pucks touching the lines do not count, all others, including overhangs do count.
- 2) Scores will be tallied after all pucks come to rest, regardless of their journey.
- 3) No specimens are to be collected or supplied unless requested by an official.
- 4) Performance enhancing liquids ingested during a match may require sharing. Be forewarned!

5) Judges shall make every effort not to drink alcoholic beverages excessively during a match.

6) Whoever wins the coin toss goes second AND gets to choose either color of puck OR lane.

There are many "Unwritten Rules" which may also be applied as needed from time to time.

These guidelines were formulated after careful consultation with Retired Judges and agreement of Judge Parker and Judge Joe.

Respectively Submitted by Judge Joe.
