Underground Shuffleboard Newsletter
5th Edition
Wednesday, February 3rd, 2010

“TIS THE SEASON”.

The only match today was Tom Naden & Mary Mayrs against Don Turner & Terri Jones. It was held in cold windy conditions which caused a total 10 zeroes. However Don & Terri prevailed 111 to 73. Tom’s misbehavior during the match earned a warning from Judge Joe who stated that if it happened again Tom would be admonished. What ever that is!.

Lew, AKA The Shoe thief, friend, Phyllis, arrived last night. There are some who were wondering about Lew’s absence this afternoon and what was he doing?.

Reported Violation- Submitted by unknown wise ass. In violation of section 96761 of the unwritten rules, the Publisher of “The Underground Shuffleboard Newsletter” published a 2nd Edition on Wednesday, January 27, 2010. It was so well received, they published another “2nd Edition” on Friday, January 29th, 2010 but changed the news!. In order to clear up these “typos”, the 3rd Edition was published on Sunday, January 31st, 2010 and the 4th Edition on Monday, February 1st, 2010. To avoid any confusion, please check the top of this edition to find out if you have last years’ issue.

If you think the above is confusing—then you know how confused this reporter is!.
