"TIS THE SEASON".

Fridays match of Keith Worsnop (substitution for Lew Weil) and Ellie Naden against Bill Carlson and Elaine Roemer turned out to be a close match. The two heavy weights Bill and Elaine edged out with 106 to 92. Bill was seen waxing the Shuffleboard Court before the match.

Washington D.C. is getting "Freezing Weather". You would think with all the politicians spouting "Hot Air" it would be warmer there. Maybe they are sending some of the cold weather to Maui.

The first match played on Saturday between Jim Roemer and Lynn Carlson against George Gerritsen and Mary Lou Turner was the longest this season lasting 1 hour and 5 minutes.

There were 19 no scores and 4 minus tens. George's good playing and dead eyed Mary Lou's "knock the opponents puck off the court" finally won 102 to 56.

The 2nd match with Ken Fruitcake Langendorf and Chick Smith lost to Dave Vistaunet and Yvonne Worsnop 77 to 16 in a little over one half hour.

There are two matches scheduled for Monday, February 8th beginning at 2 p.m.

The 1st match is George McDowell and Rosanne Mastrangioli against Gene Jones and Diane Feuerstein.

The 2nd match will be Les Howatt and Fran Mertins against Peter Lazenby and Sherry Vandersnick.

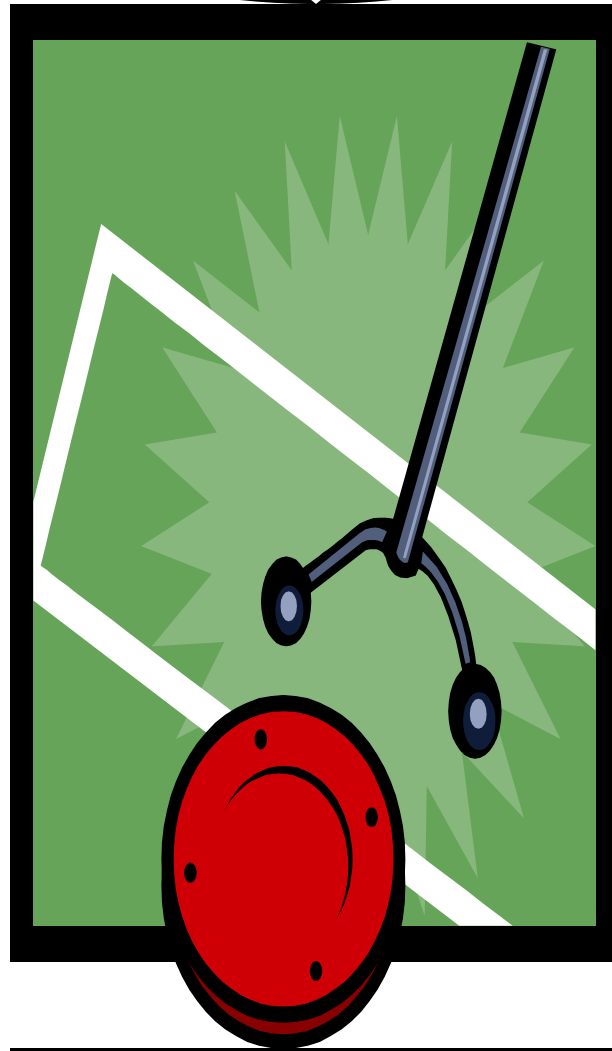

The match on Tuesday at 3 p.m. is Sally Thorpe (replacing Scotty Smith) and Nina Howatt against Charlie Mayrs and Flora Goodridge.

That's all folks
