"TIS THE SEASON".

Today's match was Sally Thorpe (in for Scotty Smith) and Nina Howatt against Charlie Mayrs and Flora Goodridge.

During the match Charlie tried to block Sally from hitting off his good scoring pucks. Sally's Quote of the Day "That was a stupid block, Charlie!".

The final score was Charlie and Flora winning 101 to 59

The next matches so far are not till Thursday, February 11th beginning at 2 p.m.

The first match is Gene Jones and Jane McDowell against Sigi Franiek and Diane Feuerstein followed by George Gerritsen and Mary Lou Turner against Don Turner and Terri Jones. This reporter predicts that a "Turner" will win.

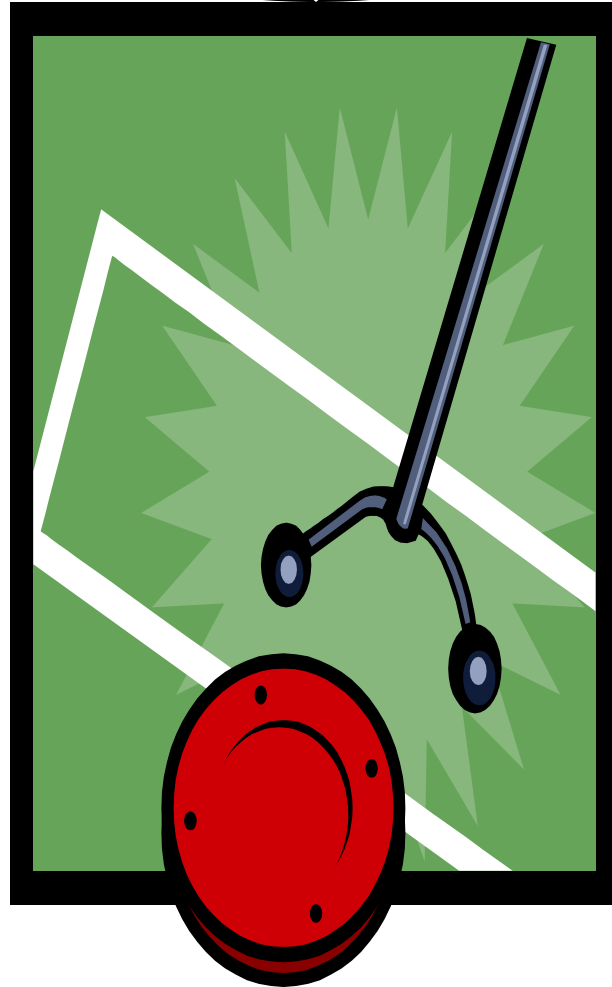

(If the wrong Turner wins????).

Welcome Home Keith and Nancy Craven!.

As of Monday Elaine Roemer and Charlie Mayrs are tied for first place in the Puck Pusher Predictor Poll with 18 points each. Ten others are only three points behind so the clams can still be plucked.

The second annual "Play Your Heart Out" shuffleboard tournament will be held on Saturday, Feb. 13th and Sunday, Feb. 14th beginning at noon....At least 17 teams will be competing. Actual play begins at 12.30 p.m. on both Courts on Saturday. One "play in" round will be held at 11 a.m. Players will be notified. Quarter finals and semi finals and finals will be played Sunday beginning at 12.30 p.m. Please sign up by Wednesday if you want to play or help at the tournament. There will be a pupus award party in front of the Dolphin building on Sunday at 5.30 p.m.

If you are not in the tournament and plan to come to the party, let Teri Jones (Box 169) or Mary Lou Turner (274) know. Partner Lists will be available on Thursday. Happy Shuffling! WEAR RED!!!!.

As a courtesy, please do not use the chairs from the Castaways Restaurant to watch the Shuffleboard games?.
