Letter to the Phantom (DUMB-DUMB) Reporter.

Castaways and we are loosing Jules (our wonderful Bartender) to Kauai. We wish her well and send her off with much Aloha.

From: William D. Goodridge

Dear Sir,
 I sincerely hope your newspaper has good insurance due to the fact my lawyer has just filed suit against you for ten million coconuts!.

My good name has been tarnished, my tender feeling's damaged to the extent they may never recover, my frazzled nerves left in a quivering and probably unrecovering state and in the very least I'll probably have a nervous breakdown. Really, Mr. Reporter, after all we've been through together to be treated this way. Aren't you ashamed? See you in court and if you're confused note spelling of my name at top compared to the other side.
 Unsincerely,

Mr. Wm. Goodridge

Phantom Reporters Rebuttal.
 The computer spell checker had 3 ways to address your name. Good-year, Goodrich or Good Ridge. Then again some times writing the Underground Newsletter in a black out you loose some letters and its not always an electrical blackout it is a brain blackout.

The Publisher advised this to be true.

Fran's Water Aerobics is at the Front Pool on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays from 9 to 10 a.m. Get in shape for you Puck Pushers!. Attendance is voluntary.

Lynn Carlson and this reporter tested again the new shuffleboard courts today. We had a ball. The pucks work best upside down and the long pushers work better than the new short pushers. No matter lets play and have fun.

Let the fun begin and schedule your matches ASAP. Don't forget do not phone Elaine at 2.49 a.m.

Be informed—there's a football game at 1.30 p.m. on the T.V Sunday in the Honu Room. The sponsors, the Roemer's and the Langendorf's do not guarantee the outcome.

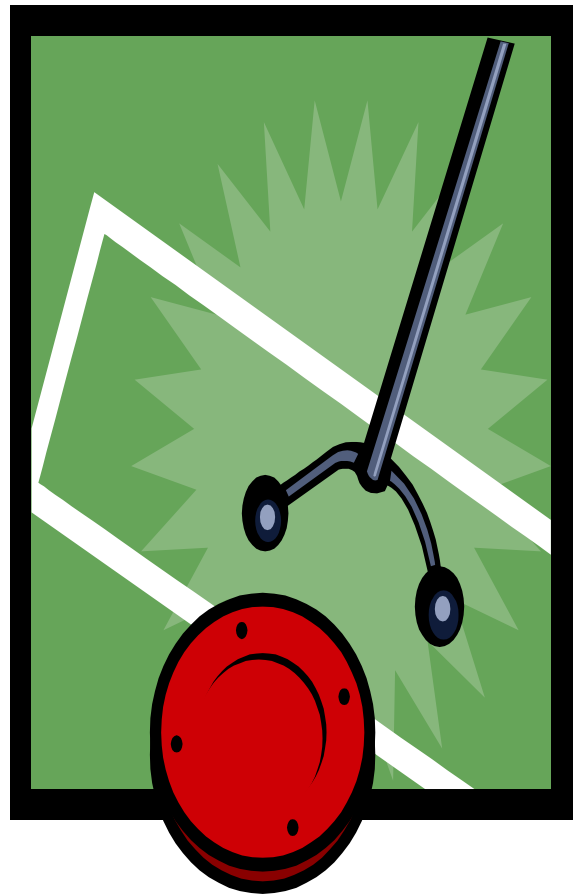

Elliot Feuerstein/Chick Smith versus Bill Sullivan/Fran Mertins will play in at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Tom Naden becomes Dave Vistanet and Sherry a question as to arrival so a bye was created for Lynn Carlson and Ken Langendorf.

“Tis the Season”
