

6th Edition
Underground Shuffleboard Tournament
Newsletter
Tuesday, February 8th, 2011

TO ALL THE SHIPS AT SEA

Last night the Underground Newsletter was published on February 9th. This means that the calendar is going backwards. We are all getting younger by the day.

Before today's matches Les Howatt was caught with his mouth wide open, snoozing.

Scotty Smith says he always has to play on the sunny end of the Shuffleboard Court. That's because of his sunny disposition.

Jane McDowell was appointed to take Carol Kranaks' place as official leaf remover.

The first match of the day began promptly at 2 p.m. with Scotty Smith and Sally Thorpe competing against Bud Fosburg and Nina Howatt. After a fast start by Sally and Nina, 15 to 22 respectfully, Scotty and Bud scored Ziltch!. Scotty and Sally prevailed with 107 to 83.

Judge Joe and Scorekeeper Roseanne Mastrangioli presided over the first match.

Judge Joe retired to be replaced for the second match by Judge Geo. McDowell. Roseanne worked a double shift as scorekeeper.

The second match was played by Henry Keys and Diane Feuerstein against Les Howatt and Elaine Roemer. Diane and Elaine battled it out last year in the finals and they did it again in this match with Henry and Diane winning 106 to 30. (Les's nap didn't help).

Correction to the unwritten rules.

Only the Judges can impeach any other Judge. That's Peachy!.

"Bisket" is the official name of the "Puck" according to the I.S.A. (International Shuffleboard Association). The I.S.A. meeting this year is in Hamburg, Germany.

Please sign up if you want to attend.

Please pay your $24 ASAP to Diane Feuerstein or Gene Jones so they can get a head or a feet count for those who will attend the Shuffleboard Awards Brunch on the 24th of February at the Royal Lahaina at 11.a.m.

That's all for now .

"Tis the Season"

The Phantom Reporter

Be Happy

This Reporter and Publisher denies any claims or liability for authenticity, accuracy or complaints of any writings in any editions (past, present or future).

Please contribute contributions to Box 211 at the Front Desk.