FROM THE HIGH CHAIR
BY JUDGE JOE

The first match of 2011 is now in the books and it has been described to me that I have mellowed!! Apparently there were 2 (or 3) line infractions during service by each team at each end.

Also the Judge did not pick up the chuck which refused to cross the proper line. Hopefully, this will not happen while Judge George is in the HIGH chair.

While Sherriff Gene opted to enforce the unwritten rules, he forgot that only the Judges are in possession of the unwritten rules. He therefore is admonished for being so cheeky so early in the tournament.

Elaine and Bill have the games well planned. So far, so good.

As it was reported to the Phantom Reporter: that according to the unwritten rules only upon death, impeachment or resignation can MKV Shuffleboard Judges be replaced and any new Judge must be appointed by the then existing Judges. The current Tournament Directors cannot designate new Judges.

Once a Judge, past or present, should be addressed as Judge, not Your Honor. See Paragraph 16
 Article 6 of the unwritten rules.

This does not reflect on the current Directors as they have not read the unwritten rules.

“The Free Dinner on the Beach Bring Your Own Food” on February 29th will not be hosted in the Honu Room this year.

There are 8 matches scheduled this week which will complete the first round.
