The second round sign up (Quarter Finals) sheet will be at the Beach Shack by the beginning of the matches Friday. Please schedule your 2nd round match with your opponents ASAP.

Remember—Sunday and Monday the Shuffleboard Courts are reserved for the Valentines Matches.

Happy Birthday Scorekeeper Jim Vasilas on your 85th. "Judge Ye Not, Lest Ye Not Be Judged". Not quite the quote of Judge Joe.

Judge Joe mentioned what a great job Photo Flora Goodyear does, (Bill was not mentioned),

The first match today was played by Bill Green and Mary Lou Turner against Elliot Feuerstein and Chic (without the K) Smith. Scorekeeper Jim was so stressed he removed his shirt. Elliot was admonished for an infraction of the unwritten rules, but was not penalized. This did not effect his play as Elliot and Chic won 104 to Bill and Mary Lou's score of 77.

Dean Rockey forgot to give Don Turner a leave of absence for Don Turner's bad eye. Don and Karen Fosburg played against Gene Jones and Mary Ann Fritschle

THIS WAS A RECORD BREAKING MATCH!!!

Don and Karen lost to Gene and Mary Ann (WOULD YOU BELIEVE) Minus 20. That's right MINUS 20 to 107. I don't think Don wanted to be Tournament Director next year.

Judge Geo. McDowell officiated the second match. He was so enchanted by the scantily dressed occupants at the swimming pool that it was suggested that he could be distracted from his official duties— (Note—It was too overcast for members of the other sex to be swimming). This is not how to bribe Judge Geo. However he may be fined by Judge Joe for delay of the game.

Judge Geo. should go to Dean Rockey for new glasses. Dean is going to open a practice in Maui for Judges only.

We do not want to penalize Judge Geo. for wearing unofficial eyewear. Unwritten Rule Number 67.

Rain Rain Go Away til after the Shuffleboard Game.

Don't forget your $46 to Gene or Diane for the Awards Bruncheon.

That's all for now .
