"TIS THE SEASON"

Charlie Black once again ran a great Arnie Wong Annual Golf Tournament with Awards evening afterwards at Castaways. Pictures of the winning teams and young dancers with kikies hula dancing are being posted to the MKVonline.com site. 1st place was Jim Roemer, Jim Vasilas, Jill Methven and Marge Keys. Longest drive on Hole 17 went to Jim Roemer and Diane Feuerstein. Closest to the pin on Hole 14 was Jim Johnson. Good luck to everyone who participated this year next year.

Some guests were invited on to the stage to dance and the winner by far was Alan Sheppard who quickly learned to shake with the best. (Please share any pictures you have by sending them to Blangendorf@msn.com).

With New Pucks—Red & Black, and New Puck Pushers the games began. Judge Joe Brakovec gave instructions on the unwritten rules to Fran Mertins and Elliot Feuerstein and their opponents Jim Roemer and Flora Goodrich and at 2 pm the pucks flew. The back and forth match began on time with only 1 minus 10 score in the whole match. The final score was 113 to 96 with Jim Roemer and "Foto" Flora Goodrich the winners.

The Scorekeeper Roseann Mastrangioli and Betty O'Connell had fun keeping score. Roseann was officially appointed grounds custodian of leaf pickeruppering.

The 2nd match was judged by our very first Female Judge, Jan Carlson (she did a great job). Jim Vasilas (the clothing catalogue model) was scorekeeper with Betty O'Connell again keeping him honest. Karen Fosberg and Gene Jones played hard against Mary Lou (don't call at 3 am.) Turner and the "Fruitcake" Ken Langendorf. In spite of Karen's whooping enthusiasm Mary Lou and Ken endured to win 108 to 65.

The match Wednesday is rescheduled for Thursday at 2 pm.
