“TIS THE SEASON”

Today, before the Shuffleboard Tournaments first match, Judge Joe ruled on Fridays accusation against Scorekeeper Roseann. After a long, long, long dissertation Judge Joe admonished Sheriff Parker over the self interest on Sheriff Parker’s behalf. The charges were dismissed on Scorekeeper Roseann to her big sign of relief. A letter of apology from Sheriff Parker was ruled by the Judge. The Sheriff said he would appeal. The ruling will now be known as the “Black Puck Chip Ruling of Fritschle vs Mastrangioli”.

The 2 pm match, one of the longest of the last few years was Carole Crowe and Parker Fritschle vs Willa Sheppard and Tom Naden. Parker was so shook up that his side began with a minus score of 30. Near the end, with Tom and Willa at 93 to 33, Tom had an almost untouchable 7 and the game won, then Parker made an impossible shot of knocking Tom’s puck into a minus 10 and scoring 30 points. A swing of 40 points.

Everyone declared this to be the most outstanding play of the tournament so far.

Willa and Tom prevailed by winning 104 to 63. The match was so long that Judge Jim Roemer snoozed a couple of times.

Before the 2nd match, it was noticed that Sheriff Parker tried to taunt Judge Joe, but to no avail. Teri Jones and Dave Vistanet could not seem to get it together against Sally Thorpe and Dianne Feuerstein. There were more minus 10’s in todays matches than all of last weeks games. Sally’s precision shots and Dianne’s deadly knock offs propelled the two girls to Victory, 101 to 75.

The 2 postponed matches will be played Tuesday, February 7th.

At 2pm Mary Mayrs and Jim Crowe will play Lynn Carlson and Bob Paul followed by Frances Rockey and Bill Carlson against Mary Ann Fritschle and Charles Mayrs.
