Formal Apology (from Sheriff Parker).

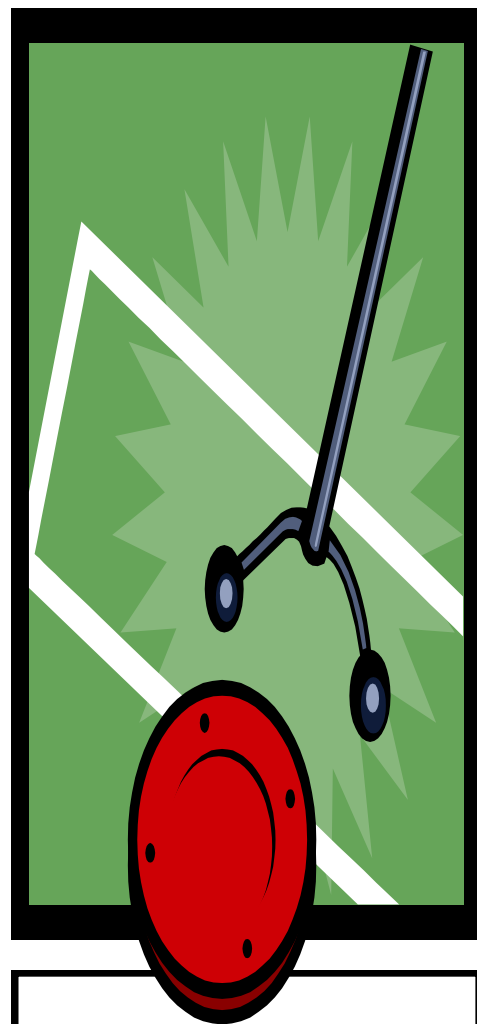

The MKV “Notarius Public” issued a “Warranty” to take a “Puck Destructor” into custody and to present said person to the Judge. This “Warranty” was given to Sheriff Gene Jones who in his wisdom notified his deputy, Former, MKV Shuffleboard Judge Parker, to exercise the “Warranty” and to place the accused in handcuffs. Judge Joe witnessed the attempted arrest and, being partial to a fashion conscience lady in apparent distress, prevented the law enforcement officer from executing the “Warranty”.

After a weekend of deliberations, libation, and cheering at the Super Bowl, Judge Joe announced on Monday February 6, 2012 the attempted arrest was similar to an automobile stop and arrest by a California law enforcement official being partial to red cars with the top down and driven by a fashion conscience young lady. When the deputy sheriff was unable to describe what the automobile driver was wearing at the time of the traffic stop, Judge Joe dismissed all charges alleged in the puck destruction “Warranty”. He further admonished Deputy Parker to issue a written apology to scorekeeper and accused puck destroyer – Rosanne Mastrangioli. (See tomorrow)
