“TIS THE SEASON”

Did you look in your Mail Box today?

There is an invitation for you to attend the Annual Champagne, Shuffleboard Awards Brunch at $26 per person at the (next door) Royal Lahaina on Saturday, February 2nd at 11 A.M.

Make your Reservations ASAP and Pay Your Cash in the Envelope and Return to Bob Paul or the very pretty, Lynn Carlson.

There were two great matches today.

Marje Keys & Alan Shepard had a problem getting into the plus column. Alan was awarded an extra 10 off for touching the puck before the score was announced. (Be Careful Everyone!). Elaine Roemer and Charles Mayrs won 104 to 26.

The 2nd match was with Roseann Mastrangioli and Ken “the Fruitcake” Langendorf against the Superior Team of Lynn Carlson and Elliot Feuerstein with Lynn and Elliot outscoring Roseann and Ken 102 to 82.

The newsletter is short today because this very sad Phantom Reporter is in mourning (licking his wounds over his loss) over his Mai Tai.

The comment below was submitted by the (today only) Substitute Phantom Reporter.

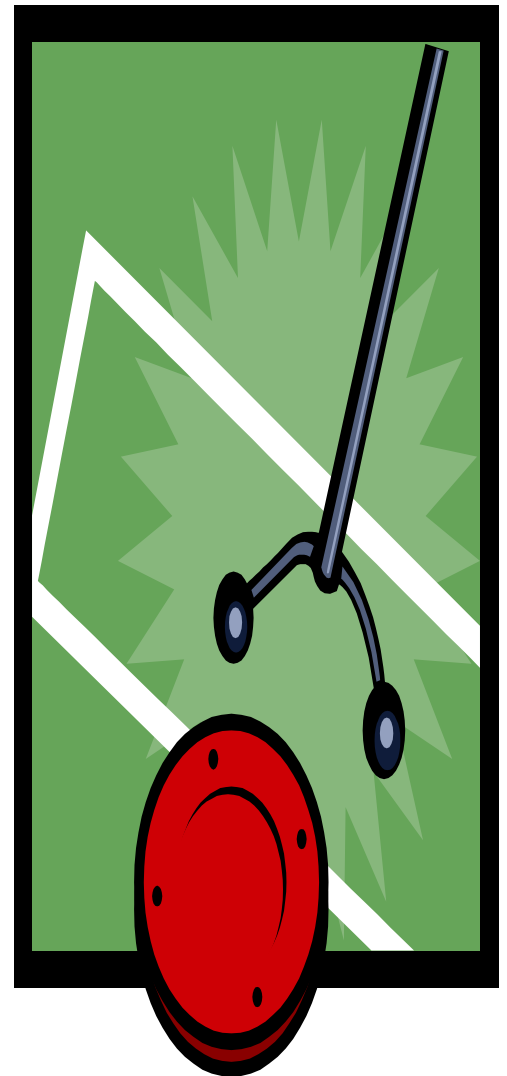

Everyone in attendance today did say this was a really close game, a really excellent game, definitely one of the best so far.

Willa, picked out of the box of substitute players, Ben Buerman as her play partner. (Henry Keys is not feeling 100% yet).

Keep Smiling !!!!

Be Happy
