Puck pushers may be required to wear wet suits in future matches.

CORRECTION! This reporter pulled a Big Boo Boo. He inverted a 9 to 6. Dinner Dancing with Fine Dining sponsored by Jim Roemer will be held on Sunday, February 9th. Read on for further info. from Jim.

MKV OWNERS 2014 Dinner DANCES.

Evan Shulman, our singer, is "movin' on up" and cannot give us a regularly scheduled night. So we have booked him for Sunday, February 9th and he is holding Wednesday, February 19th. Back by popular request for the 9th is beef tenderloin, perfectly prepared by chefs Keyes and Roemer. The cost for the combo night (Music/Dancing & Beef) remains the same as last year - $17.50 per person.

As In the past you will need to BYOB and a dish that will be compatible with the meat course. Willa Shephard and Elaine Roemer will coordinate the side dishes-so please touch base with them for ideas or to let them know what you will be bringing. Tables will seat 8 so feel free to make up your own or take potluck and meet new owners.

The sign up sheet will be at the front desk. Please sign up by Saturday the 8th at noon since we will need to order the correct number of whole beef tenderloins (and they aren't cheap). Mahalo and we look forward to seeing you at the party on the 9th.

Jim.

NOTE: Jim will not answer his phone at 3:12 AM.
