And the Friday matches began:

A Turner had to win again today!!.

Even though Bill Green showered last night every lady refused his advances to be his partner today, (someone to step in for Lady Elaine Roemer who was beat from being at the hospital with Jim and has not been feeling well for days either) so he ended up with the short losers list, all males, with Don Turner (who refused to wear Rosanne Mastrangioli's -the scorekeeper today- grass skirt so he would fit it in on the ladies end of the court) to be his partner. Boy talk about ringers.

Well Diane Feuerstein & Bob Paul were almost an even match for these two. The game was running on so many tied scores we thought it would never end. 45 minutes later as Judge George McDowell stated it was all the luck of the puck. Final score was Bill & Don won over Diane & Bob 101 to 93.

Judge Emeritus Sid Stern was in the stands and Judge George said he would consult with him on any really difficult court decisions.

Judge George also admonished the left line up of viewers (Les Howatt mainly) for touching the pucks during the game.

The next match at 3 P.M was Joyce Weil & Sid Powell V Flora Goodridge & Les Howatt. Since Sid (new to the game) after the first pucks shot by the ladies the 5 point fine was violated by the virgin player (Sid) so Judge George explained that the cumulative score has to be announced before the pucks touched. Then the game really began. Very close. Mid game Judge George escorted Mary Lou Turner to a sunnier position. Last points prior to final score was 94 to 99 and then.....then....final score ending was "Foto" Flora & Les 106 to 101 win. Wow - was a great match.

PS. DO NOT CALL MARYLOU AT 4 AM.
