Judge Joe Brakovec took an unwritten rule and made it a written rule. "The puck should not be trespassing over the back line - if not behind the last line a 5 point penalty will be incurred". (I am confused as others were).

The 2 P.M. game of Mary Lou Turner & Elliot Feuerstein Vs Elaine Roemer (playing for herself - so no ringer) & Bill Green began.

Bill did a lot of walking prior. Barbara advised that they had walked to and from Dukes for lunch. Walked straight to the courts for game.

Raining leaves today not tropical nuts - Thank Heavens!!. Kept ground keepers busy. Players can request leaf removal but if the players don't request then remover (?) will be fined 5 points. (Now I am totally lost!).

To enforce this - Judge Joe who was not aware that Gene Jones the (Official Sheriff) was in attendance - began to assign that duty to Barbie Langendorf.

Bill Green misunderstood the "Premature Evacuation" rule so was admonished but not fined then Mary Lou Turner almost followed suit.

The game then really got going. Bill Protested the Judges calling of -10 puck. Judge ruling Bill should get a better set of glasses.

1/4 way in the match the score was 20 to 21.

Aside: Nina Howatt commented "you've heard of the "Eternal Flame" this is the "Eternal Game".

One minus ten was negated after the Judge viewed through a megaphone not magnifying-glass!!!.

Judges knees took a beating today - down on his knees so often. Scoring book getting used up. Marge Keys, our scorekeeper for the game, advised that maybe a 2 page use was coming up, which would be a first. The 1/2 way score 43 to 38. 3/4 way was 72 to 73. Then 94 to 93 - then 101 to 101 - the men tying the game up and leaving to the girls to finish out the game but then Judge Joe approached the players and stated there would be two exchanges and that cumulative score of that exchange would decide the ending game score. Everyone confused but game resumed. Guys bought the score to 119 to 115 then Mary Lou scored 14 to Elaine's 8 ending score 129 to 109. Mary Lou & Elliot go on to the Semi Finals. Was Back and Forth as to who was winning the winning 1 point. Very close game.
