Heard at the Shack:

Charlie Black saw a mermaid. Chuck & Rodrigues could not confirm it. Charlie assured that this had been confirmed on TV. The remains of a mermaid like creature had been found. The Navy collected all the evidence. Chuck wonders what Charlie was drinking or smoking. I suggest that whatever we see or hear on TV should not be taken for granted nor deemed factual.

Everyone left standing are now in the Semi Finals. There will be a Bronze Game then Finals and then the MKV Annual Shuffleboard Awards Breakfast/Brunch at the Royal Lahaina next door. Please make sure you give Marje Keys your $30 (per person) money and whether you/anyone else attending or not. The restaurant needs a head count.

The highly awaited final game of the 2nd round was held today at 3 P.M. I think the most wins of any woman on property is Sally Thorpe. Sally's partner Norman Weil, last years winner, played Caryn Childs & Sherry Vandersnick.

Judge George Officiated. Frances Rockey was Court Sherriff. Rosanne Mastrangioli was back in the Scorekeeping Chair. Judge George did the ceremonial coin flip, Mammal Whale is heads - no Mammal Whale is tails.

Caryn & Sherry chose Black pucks.

First push - Red (Sally) scored 14 - Black (Caryn) 29. Judge did advise Official Resident Physician, Dr. Bill Green. had tested everyone. Everyone came up clean of any performance drugs. Quarter way into the game Red 51/Black 66. Was a close game until Norman Weil faced Sherry Vandersnick's impossible last score of 23. Could not get all of them but did reduce to 15. Ended with a win for Sherry & Caryn . Final score Red 80 to Black 110.
