

MKV Fred Stolz Shuffleboard Tournament Underground Newsletter January 28th, 2004

“TIS THE SEASON” .

To date as of this newsletter there are no matches scheduled. Hey guys, Lets Get it Going! The first 6 matches are supposed to be completed by Tuesday, 6 pm February 3rd, 2004.

All those who want to get fit for the shuffleboard wars can join Fran's water aerobics classes at the “Kid's” pool on Mondays and Fridays from 9am to 10 am. You can purchase Dumbbells from Fran or bring your own (spouse not included). The first class was held last Monday which was well attended. You should see all the “girls” trying to touch their elbows behind their backs—Hubba Hubba ! Everyone is invited.

Those who are interested in Ikebana Ikenobo flower arranging class—contact Barbie in 211. This is not a substitute training class for shuffleboard. Thursdays at 9 am has been suggested.

Rumor has it that Don Turner did a flip flop off the roof that is being replaced in the back. It's not true - he just went through the roof.

Did you notice Scotty's red socks at the Sunday shuffleboard Selection process ?.

First prize this year is 2 free trips to the airport. (I did not make this up), More details later.

Welcome back Kranaks—you light up our property !.

Bill Carlson is back and his harem has congregated already in the usual spot. Lynn not arriving until Friday so keep your eye on him for her.

Fred Stolz was the first recipient of the Hall of Fame MKV Shuffleboard Tournament Award. We will miss you Fred.

We will also miss Mike O'Connell kibitzing play from the side lines.

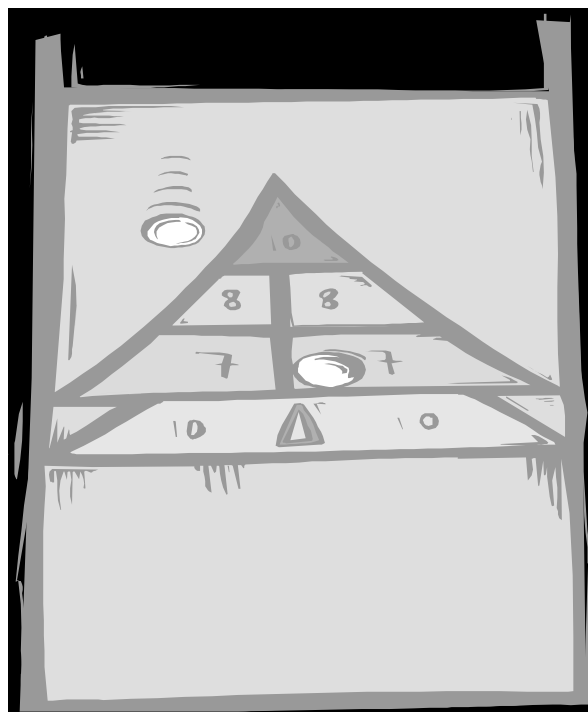

We will also miss the Disheroons - long time participants - very much and our thoughts and best wishes for a speedy recovery goes out to them.

Looks like the shuffleboard courts new paint job will be completed in time.

Oops! Just checked and found Hy Siegel and Carole Johnson v Carol Cusmano and Joe Brakovec is scheduled for Thursday 29th @ 11 am.

Let's be sure to be in the grandstands and cheer them all on. Being the first match to be played is stressful and we should all put on our best smiles and come out and play.
