

MKV Fred Stolz Shuffleboard Tournament Underground Newsletter Thursday, Jan. 29th, 2004

“TIS THE SEASON” .

The first “Battle of the Shuffleboard Season” was played today.

The dueling Carols. Carol Cusmano v Carole (without an e) Johnson shooting pucks toward their partners Joe Brakovec versus the “energizer bunny” Hy Seigel.

The game was so close that neither teamed wanted to win.

With adverse conditions, winds gusting up to 30 miles per hour, Carol (without an e) Johnson and Hy Seigel finally won with a score of 104 to 102. Carol (without an e) was awarded a red garter for her efforts.

Scottie the Judge received one demerit for sleeping on the job in spite of his red socks.

New word in the tournament is obliquely ?. Don - what does it mean ?.

Don't get too close to Bruce Kranak -he has got one heck of a cold on the flight here.

Pat Lazenby is in charge of collecting $20 per person for the Shuffleboard Tournament Championship Awards Brunch to be held February 22 at 11 am at the Royal Lahaina. There is only room for 70 so make your reservations early and pay your $20.

Don't confuse the Awards Brunch with the free Dinner on the Beach “Bring your own Food” being held this year on February 30th instead of February 29th as it was last year.

On February 31st go up to the 7th floor of the Aloha Tower to see the uncompleted plans of the refurbished lobby.

Sincerely,

The Phantom Reporter
P.S. The only scheduled match thus far is Saturday January 31st at 10.30 am between Sally Thorpe & Ken Langendorf v Faith Reid (Hubba Hubba water aerobics girl) and Scotty Smith.

Keep Smiling.
