HAPPY SAINT
VALENTINES DAY
THE BARBIE & KEN DOLLS
wish all of you out there with

Sticks and Pucks, our valued friends, a warm and heart felt Valentines Day. Thank you for letting us enjoy your friendship as well as your presence in supporting these Olympian Shuffleboard Games. The Winners, the Losers, the Spectators, the Scorekeepers, the Judge, the Bouncer, the Hecklers and everyone else-next year the "Free Dinner on the Beach, Bring Your Own Food" will be held on February 29th.

Contrary to news reports regarding the Barbie & Ken Dolls they are still an item on this property.

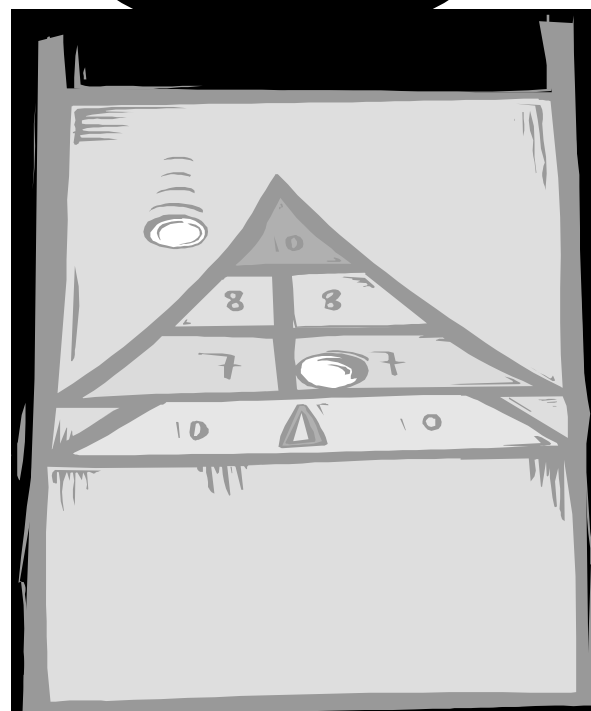

Its getting exciting- The match yesterday was delayed due to fire alarms and elevators down. The combatants all made it with only one flight of stairs or ground floor walks. Those in the bleachers from upper floors trekked down the stairwells. Thanks for showing up- 48 in attendance. Sally "Spot On" Thorpe & Ken "Fruitcake" Langendorf turned up the heat in the tournament by wearing red glaring outfits.

"TIS THE SEASON"

Carol Kranak wore her "Lucky" outfit. Bruce Kranak coached Don Turner the whole game- look at the outcome. Judge Lou called on the "Bouncer" Don Powell to give Ken a warning for influencing the opposition with gifts. Kay Ghean "The Vendor" also was put on warning for crossing the court even though Bill assured they had current liquor permits. When the score 17-74 Judge Lou warned that if score went under 15 then that team had to buy drinks for everyone and Bill Carlson offered a white towel so they could surrender which Ken and Sally promptly refused.

Judge Lou had Bill Carlson introduce his brother and sister in law. Carol lost track of the score almost prompting a fine. Falling leaf delays were many. Joe Brakovec became the steward working his way up the ladder by removing them. Sally and Ken finally won with an upset of 103 to 53. Sherrie Vandersnick was scorekeeper for the day. "Foto" Flora Goodridge made the rounds delivering photos to everyone-everyone thanks you so much.

The match today was really a "love day" match between Ellie Naden & Don Powell v Tom Naden & Pat Lazenby. Judge Lou almost napped through today's match. He had to be phoned to show up 5 minutes late. The score of 103 for Pat Lazenby & Tom Naden to Ellie Naden and Don Powell's 52 almost identical to the last game.
