

MKV Fred Stolz Shuffleboard Tournament Underground Newsletter Saturday, Feb 3rd, 2004

“TIS THE SEASON” .

Yesterday a great match was held between Pinkie Stolz and Barry Johnson against the “Braless” Arthur Broder and Frances “Scantly Dressed” Rockey. Pinkie and Barry wore matching Pink Animal (unicorn) Bracelets, Frances and Arthur came out of the stalls leading the way but Pinkie and Barry finally won 104 to 76. Judge “Lou” almost threw out a spectator for voicing their opinion. Be careful—next time it might be you that is the Brunt of Judge “Lou’s” exasperation.

The “Grand Prize” to each 1st place winner is a “Free” Ride to the Airport. No you won’t be riding out of town on a rail. The ride from MKV to the Airport is at the courtesy of Brad Parsons, Islandwide Shuttle Service (808) 385-2367.

Chic (#233) and Dick (#187) are collecting $1.00 per person Shuffleboard Entrance Fees. They are going to be followed so that they won’t abscond with the money. So pay up everyone.

The 11 am match Tuesday between Flora “Picture Perfect” Goodridge (not the Tire Person) and Peter “The Bionic Knee” Lazenby against Jane “Bubbly” McDowell and Jan “Giggles” Brakovec—after 5 minus 10’s Flora and Peter devastated Jan and Jane 114 to 88. George McDowell was bonded by Judge “Lou” after he appointed Don Powell as “Bouncer” so that there would not be any unruly bystanders. The Red Garter was awarded to Flora.

The 1.30 pm match between Kay Ghean and George McDowell against Mary Anne Fritschle and Jim Vasilas took 1 hour and 7 minutes for Kay and George to win 118 to 77 over Mary Anne and Jim. Each team had six 10 offs each. Kay received the Red Garter.

The final match of the day Mary Lou Turner and ick Thorpe breezed through a short match 103 to 41 over Barbie Langendorf and Parker Fritschle. Mary Lou won the Red Garter.

It’s shuffleboard time again, my friends, Good memories from the past. We’ll try our best to have great fun. And make these good times last !

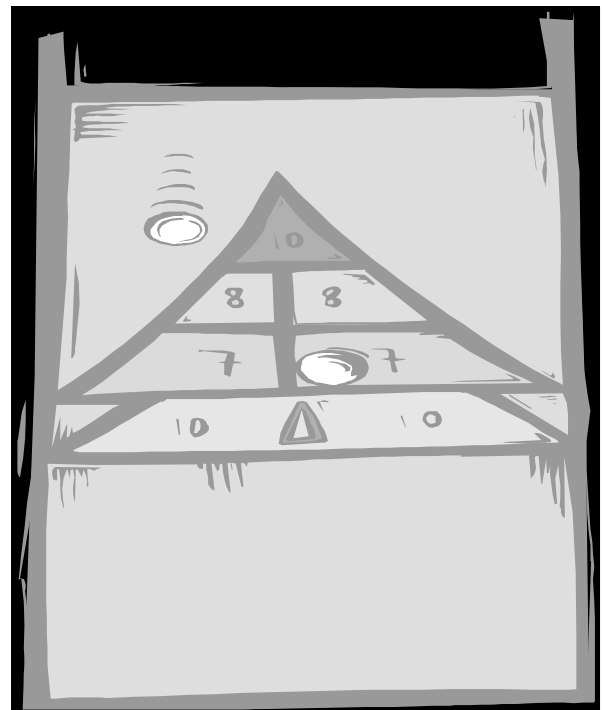

It’s shuffleboard time again, my friends, With lots of games to play. So come on out and cheer us on. Support us all the way !.

It’s shuffleboard time again, my friends, We’ll shoot those pucks along. Let’s try to win that cute red garter. And sing a first-place song.

It’s shuffleboard time again, my friends, I hope you all agree - The friendships made are awesome, But best of all—it’s free.

That’s all for now.
