“TIS THE SEASON” .

Betty O’Connell and Bill Carlson came out of the gate fast but Pat Lazenby and Tom Naden came on strong to win 104 to 71. Chic Smith had a red garter for Pat Lazenby. You know of course, that Chic made all the red garters by hand !, Thank you Chic-Scotty was sitting all by himself. No-he doesn’t have B.O.– he has a cold. Speaking of colds the Kranak’s are back in circulation after shedding theirs.

Emergency first aid was given when one of the spectators-Jan Gerritson was injured. She has a big big Band Aid on her leg. What happened is Jan got so excited during the match she fell off the chair!. Rumor has it that she will recover fully as George will give her lots of loving care.

The “Red Socks” team of Sally Thorpe and Ken Langendorf played the second match of the day against the “Pink Panthers” Pinkie Stolz and Barry Johnson. The game was delayed from 3 to 3.30 pm because Ruth and Arthur Broder were leaving the property and many wanted to give them a send off. Decamping was delayed again for them by the airline from 3 pm. To 4.15 pm.

The “Gimps” (Barry Johnson hips/Ken Langendorf knee) showed that bionics work by hitting 10 offs obliquely by each other constantly. Sally Thorpe and Ken “Fruitcake” finally won out 108 to 66.

The fashion decision made by Judge Lou to give Pinkie the yellow pucks was to keep the color coordination going with her yellow outfit.

34 brave people weathered the cold and windy tournament today in the bleachers.

Dr. Green fell asleep during the game due to exhaustion from over working at the testing lab.

A new song is being sung. Here a puck, there a puck- I hope that is what they are singing.

Come on Guys ! Schedule your matches. Only 17 days to the Awards Breakfast.
