“TIS THE SEASON”

While waiting to begin the 3rd quarter match to begin Sherrie Vandersnick seemed very nervous. She need not have been—her partner Dr. Bill Green was there to help out on the match against the formidable Kay Ghean and George “Slugger” McDowell. The game began high scoring with Kay and George holding their own at 43 to 47. Then everyone clapped when Mary Lou arrived 10 minutes after play had begun. Their next five turns Kay and George did not score a point. The shortest game this season ended when Dr. Bill and “Sherrie” won 100 to 50.

Mary Lou swears she did not damage her toe by kicking Don— it was a table.

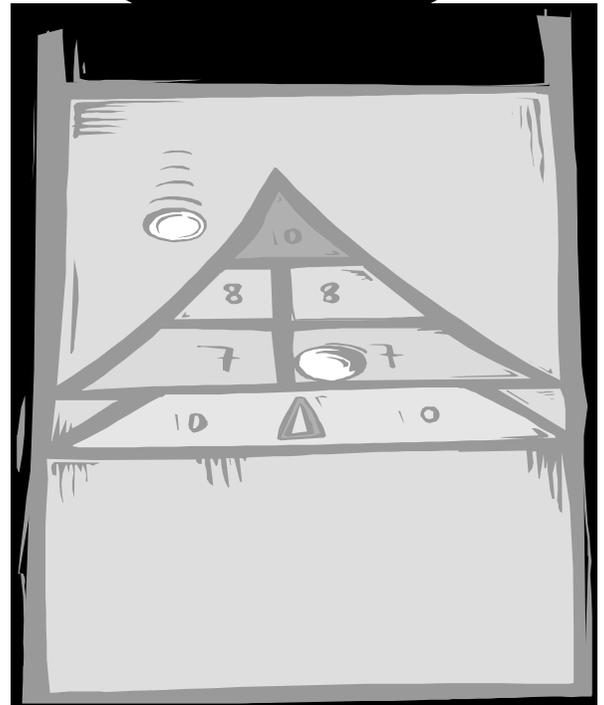

Discussion was had about the last quarter final match to be played this Thursday at 3 pm. Is still tentative ?. Lets plan on it !.

Rumor has it that there may be a Shortage of Toilet Paper on Campus !. So be kind to your Hosts— Bring your own.

I heard (not confirmed) that 50 have paid for the Tournament Champagne Brunch— still have room for 20 more—see Pat Lazenby.

Hope everyone has made their reservations for February 30th. FDOTB-BYOF should be a sell out. Remember to bring your Complimentary Passes. Next year we will go back and hold it as usual on February 29th.
