“TIS THE SEASON” Saturday - February 1st, 2003.

Notes on today’s matches etc. Moment of silence was taken for our astronauts.

Frances (Not Francis) Rockey began her match with a minus ten. Pat Lazenby and Tom Naden slaughtered Frances (Not Francis) and Don (Last years Winner) Turner by 103 to 19. Don shot a high score of Minus 20. Don and Frances had a total of 9 ten offs—a tournament record

It was suggested that the Judges have a whistle to announce the beginning of the matches.

The second match was won by Jan Brakovec and Bill Carlson over Sherry Vandersnick and Fred Stolz by 106 to 73. Sherry kept knocking off her own ten offs with record breaking regularity.

The third match was won 102 to 73 by Chick Smith and Dick Thorpe over Pinkie Stolz and Dean Rockey. Take our hats off to Pinkie who played left handed due to an injury to her right hand.

The above matches had Judge Arthur (Ponytail) Broder in charge.

The final match was the match of the tournament so far, 111 to 104 won by Betty O’Connell and Less (Not More) Howatt over Foto Flora Goodridge and Judge Arthur Broder. Betty O’Connell scored on her first round 25 points. She is left handed but due to an injured left hand played with her right hand.

Let’s hear it for both Pinkie and Betty. Judge Lew presided over the final match.

It’s good to see past participants out in the bleachers. Bill Goodridge, Hy Seagal, George and Jan Gerritson, Mike O’Connell. Hopefully you’ll make it into the matches next year.
