

MKV 5th Edition Underground Shuffleboard Newsletter

“TIS THE SEASON” Monday - February 3rd, 2003.

It was suggested by Joe Brakovec that Bill Green be considered for an award as “Maui County Physician of the Year” for keeping the Old Timers Association members of the Maui Kaanapali Villas fit and drug free to play the grueling sport of Shuffleboard.

For those who may be interested in my unpublished book “How to Win at Bridge”. The main theme is “Hold Better Cards”.

Sundays, February 3rd match of Mary Ann Fritchle/Joe Brakovec—Yellow 104 Vs Lynn Carlson/Charlie Disheroon—Black 110. Well fought match—very close.

Chic is not a Chicken so Chic’s name is spelt without a “k”.

Apologies for Saturday’s Edition—The Copier (I broke it!) Had to use the fax machine.

The Judges want to be bribed if the amount is meaningful—like a Million Dollars. (Any donations will be excepted).

Mondays Games

D. J. Reed and Sally Thorpe played Ellie Naden and Carol Green in an all Ladies Shuffleboard Match which was a first for MKV. D. J. and Sally won 104 to 59. At one time Carol had two minus 10’s and a plus 7 for a total of minus 13. The Rocky’s stick history is on going.

The second match was won by Nina Howatt and George McDonnell by 112 to 65 over Karen Paul and Ken “Fruitcake” Langendorf. Don Turner watched Carol Green and the “Fruitcake” play and decided he wasn’t going to commit suicide.

*Just because you sell off the chair,
Is absolutely no reason for people to stare !*

This is to remind you that Gerritsen is spelt with an E as in erotic.

Not with an O as in orgy!.
