

MKV 6th Edition Underground Shuffleboard Newsletter

“TIS THE SEASON” Wednesday - February 5th, 2003.

Before Tuesday’s Shuffleboard match between Mary Lou Turner and Bonnie Meyer’s 112 who beat Ruth Broder and Peter Lazenby 88, Mary Lou was seen trying to bribe Judge Lew with a foot massage and other (unmentionable) favors. Peter wanted to be spotted 25 points using the age factor. (Did he think his opponents were more mature). Mary Lou scored 24 points to end the match.

After the match Judge Arthur Broder’s quote of the day, “Mary Lou did something he could not do, “Beat my Wife”.

The following match on Tuesday was Barbara Langendorf and Don Powell defeating Fran Mertins and Bruce Kranak on Barbie’s last blow out shot score of 100 to 96. The 8 on and opponents minus 10 last shot put them at exactly 100. Barbie had another blow out while driving—The left front tire was decimated. The police man told her that her excellent driving ability saved her from an accident.

Question ?. Does Bruce Kranak play better (Shuffleboard) while imbibing Mai Tais ?. A certificate was given by Judges Lew and Arthur to Bruce for 10 extra points for the 2004 Shuffleboard Tournament in honor of his imbibing.

These points may or may not be honored by next years administrators.

Judge Arthur publicly apologized to the Fruitcake that in fact the Fruitcake did not offer him a Million Dollar bribe. (Does that imply that the Fruitcake was too cheap ?.)

From George McDowell—in spite of the different spellings of George and Jane’s last name—they are married.
