

MKV 7th Edition Underground Shuffleboard Newsletter

“TIS THE SEASON” Friday - February 7th, 2003.

Happy Birthday was sung to the fellow in the Bright Red Shirt. A pair of sevens for Jim Vasilas (77 years young on the 7th of February).

Welcome back Cravens !.

Nancy Craven and Bob Paul will play Jan Brakovec and Bill Carlson at 3 P.M. on Saturday, come one—come all.

Wednesday, February 5th, 2003 shuffleboard match was played by Chic Smith and Dick Thorpe to win over Kay Ghean and Jim Vasilas with a score of 100 to 54. Chic without a “K” played the most consistent game seen yet.

Judge Lew officiated today’s 2 P.M. match lost by Barbie Langendorf and Don Powell to Pat Lazenby and Tom Naden 40 to 102. Barbie was seen smoking just before the match—Did this cause her downfall ?. Where was Dr. Bill Green to test her for illegal or legal substances ?.

The following match (rained out yesterday) was watched anxiously by Mary Disheroon to cheer Lynn Carlson and Charlie Disheroon in a rout over Betty O’Connell and Les Howatt 107 to 19. Betty was called on a foot fault by Judge Lew. Injured arm and all she played her heart out. Betty, we commend you.

SCHEDULE OF MATCHES.

Saturday, February 8th, 2003.

3 P.M. Jan Brakovec and Bill Carlson Vs. Nancy Cravens and Bob Paul.

Rumor has it that we have on property at MKV a “Golf Ball Thief”. He has been seen by many chasing strays and being chased by an irate golf club toting golfer. We are concerned with friends safety. She should be more selective of walking partners.

It has been suggested that “Free Lunch on the Beach, Bring Your Own Food” be repeated this year on February 30th, 2003. Contact Unit 711.

Another Giggle submitted by guess who ?. Initials SS.

Two cannibals were chatting over lunch One said “You know I just hate my mother-in-law”.

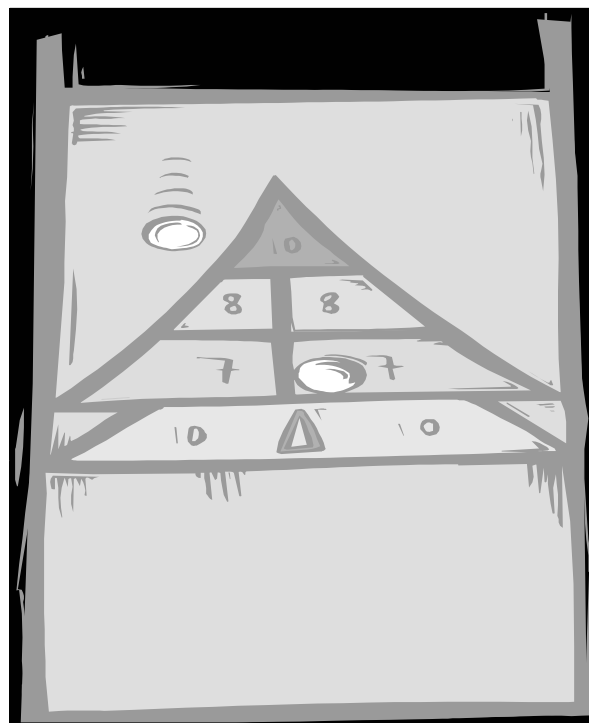

“Forget her” the other replied, “Just eat the noodles”.

Another.

A nymphomaniac must be a GO-GO-GO-GO Girl !.

An illegitimate child is a bungle of joy !.
